FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Gurpreet Singh Receives ASQ-Certified Master Black Belt

Milwaukee, Wis., 03/07/2015 — The Certification Board of ASQ is pleased to announce that Gurpreet Singh has completed the requirements to be named an ASQ-Certified Master Black Belt, or ASQ MBB.

As such, Gurpreet Singh has reached a very significant level of professional recognition, indicating a proficiency in and a comprehension of current industry practices. Individuals who earn this certification are allowed to use “ASQ MBB” on their business cards and professional correspondence.

“Earning an ASQ certification is more than a great accomplishment - it’s a formal recognition of professionals that they have demonstrated an understanding of, and a commitment to, quality practices in their field,” said ASQ Chair Cecilia Kimberlin. “This distinction represents an investment in ones future and provides a competitive advantage to those who earn ASQ certifications.”

In order to qualify for the Master Black Belt examination, an individual must hold a current ASQ Certified Six Sigma Black Belt certification, and must have either five years of experience in the role of a SSBB or MBB, or completed 20 Six Sigma Black Belt projects. Candidates who meet these minimum eligibility requirements will then have to submit a portfolio for review. Certified MBB’s possess exceptional expertise and knowledge of current industry practice. MBBs have outstanding leadership ability, are innovative, and demonstrate a strong commitment to the practice and advancement of quality and improvement.

Since 1968, when the first ASQ certification examination was administered, more than 190,000 individuals have taken the path to reaching their goal of becoming ASQ-certified in their field or profession, including many of who have attained more than one designation.
